ARISTOCRATIC BOY HUNTS FOR PARENTS LOST DURING WAR

Belgian Lad Who Fled When Germans Invaded Brussels Believes Father Was Prince.

The Belgian Minister of Justice is trying to find the parents or other relatives of an aristocratic little boy about twelve years old who knows only that his given names are Charles is and that his father, whom he not seen since the German invaof Belgium, was addressed as "Monsieur le Prince."

he boy fied from Brussels as the Germans'entered, and a French priest brought him to America. Later he was taken back to his own country and is now in the care of the Minister of Justice. It is thought posnible that his parents, impoverished by the war, may be living in the United States.

YACHT CLUB HOUSE BURNED. Morris Loses Its Trophies In Fire at Rodman's Neck.

Many treasured trophles were destroyed to-day when a fire following the explosion of an oil lamp burned up the two-story clubhouse of the Morris Yacht Club at Rodman's Neck, Palham Bay, facing City Island.

Policeman Nelson of City Island Sta-tion heard the explosion and turned in an alarm, but the building was in they were able to do little except a contine the fire to the clubhouse. To building was owned by the Park De partment of this city.
